VISA INFORMATION

Foreign participants planning to attend the XXII Brazilian Meeting on Inorganic Chemistry (BMIC), X Latin American Meeting on Biological Inorganic Chemistry (LABIC), XI Brazilian Meeting on Rare Earths (BMRE), and the IV Workshop on Theoretical Bioinorganic Chemistry (WTBC) should verify whether their nationality requires a visa to enter Brazil by consulting official Brazilian government channels. Visa requirements depend on reciprocity agreements and vary by country of origin. The Visitor Visa, intended for participation in scientific, cultural, or professional events, is the most commonly used category. Visa issuance is the responsibility of Brazilian consular authorities abroad, and applicants are responsible for any associated fees.

Fast checklist:

Quick note: Confirm requirements with the nearest Brazilian consulate and official government channels before applying.

- Passport validity: Ensure your passport is valid for at least 6 months from your planned date of entry.
- Visa requirement: Contact the nearest Brazilian consulate to confirm whether your nationality requires a visa and to learn current entry rules.
- Nationality rule: Visa rules depend on your nationality, not on the country from which you are traveling.
- Processing time and fees: Processing times and consular fees vary by nationality; applicants are responsible for all costs.
- Residence checks: Verify with authorities in your country of residence whether any additional documents or approvals are required to travel to Brazil.
- Vaccination timing: If vaccination is required, confirm how long before travel the vaccine must be completed.
- Organizer support: Request an invitation letter or other supporting documents from the event organizers if needed for your visa application.
